Down A Country Road

Down a country road in the heart of Wisconsin's largest Old Order Amish community you will find a treasure like no other. Located just 2 miles east of Cashton you will find the "Village Shops at Down A Country Road", on the farm of Chuck and Kathy Kuderer. Six unique gift shops that feature products made by the Amish as well as other local artisans and some very unique general gift ware are situated in a quaint country setting that is sure to warm your heart.

The Kuderer's, who both grew up in the Cashton area had Amish neighbors from the time they were young kids. After marrying and settling in the picturesque valley east of Cashton they established a friendship with their Amish neighbors and in 1994 began working with the Amish in a business relationship. The Amish have built most of the little gift shops on the farm and continue to supply their hand crafted furniture, quilts, rugs, baskets, home made jams and jellies, maple syrup, noodles, candies and much more.

The gift shops include The Amish Shop, The Little Red Shed, Emma's Kitchen, Memories from Amish Country, Not So Plain & Simple and Country Corner Ice Cream Shop. The gift shops are set in a village like setting amidst gorgeous gardens that have a pathway leading to each shop. The Kuderer's welcome thousands of visitors each season to their farm and they hope you will come visit as well. The gift shops are open officially May thru October from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday thru Saturday. Always closed on Sundays as is everything in the Amish community. Unofficially you may find the gift shops open earlier in the spring or on Saturdays up until Christmas. For more information call Kathy at 608-654-5318 or log in to WWW.DOWNACOUNTRYROAD.COM
